

“Ugo Rivolta European award 2009”: projects admitted to the final stage

The jury panel of the “Ugo Rivolta European Architecture award 2009” met on May the 28th 2009, to judge the 42 projects arrived from Austria, Belgium, Estonia, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Netherlands, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain and United Kingdom.

After nominating Giulio Barazzetta and Nicola Braghieri as full members, to substitute Klaus Theo Brenner and Christian Devillers who could not attend the meeting for unforeseen and sudden commitments, the jury panel composed from : Guillermo Vasquez Consuegra, Pierre Alain Croset, Gyorgy Kerekes, Giulio Barazzetta and Nicola Braghieri appointed arch. Pierre Alain Croset as President.

After having expressed satisfaction for the large participation and also for the high quality of the projects, the jury confirms the evaluation criteria of the award notice: “the architectural quality, the appropriateness of the project within the context, the relationship between housing and other correlated functions, ecological and social sustainability”.

The jury panel examines the reports, the drawings and looks over the pictures of all the enrolled buildings and concludes the sitting admitting the following 24 projects to the final stage of “Ugo Rivolta European Architecture award 2009”:
